STRIKE SITUATION IS MORE GLOOMY

An Early Collapse of Movement Is Not Looked For.

THE COMMITTEE IS ENCOURAGED

The Revolutionists Seemerd To Be Bountifully Supplied with Money and the Government Anticipates a Hard Struggle.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—2 p. m.—The outlook for an early collapse of the strike is more gloomy today. The situation is distinctly more menacing. The council of workmen's delegates or strike committee, are manifestly encouraged by the extension of the strike in St. Petersbug, various organizations including the bank clerks, telephone girls and some of the provisional leagues having voted to join in the movement. Moreover, it is certain that the workmen's council has received mysterious supplies of funds and consequently they present a bolder front. Practically all the pretexts based on economic demands have been abandoned, although the eight-hour day figures in the oratory at meetings in order to hold the workmen who have no thought except improvement in their material condition. The workmen's council returned a scornful reply to Count Witte's personal appeal to "his brother workmen" ridiculing the government's profession of solicitude for the workmen and renewing the demand for the immediate abolition of martial law in Poland, etc. Count Witte's attempt to negotiate directly with the strike leaders has come to naught, alhough he offered concessions in the case of the Cronstadt mutineers in case of their being condemned to death. But the leaders refused all compromise.

"All or nothing!" was the response.

The imperial ukase, on the land question, issued today, although it wipes out about $40,000,000 of the peasants' arrearages of debt, which, under ordinary circumstances might have been received with joy, is another disappointment.

The promises of additional lands are too vague to hold the agitated, starving peasants who, in the valleys of the Don and the Volga, are again marching, pillaging, burning ad murdering.

No confirmation has been obtained of yesterday's report of a false emperor leading the peasants of Penza.

The mill and factory owners at a meeting just held while offering to make concessions in the latter of hours of labor, generally to the ten hours, took a final decision that unless the men resumed work Monday they must close down indefinitely. Should the men be locked out in the face of the winter, it would only make the situation more desperate.

The news from the provinces shows that practically no movement has been started there in support of the general strike, but there is a deep suspicion that this may simply be the lull of preparation.

The Social Democrats and Revolutionists are keeping their plans dark. The organizations have ramifications throughout the country and at a signal they might again be able to bring the industries of the country to a stand still.

Railroad Property Under Guard.

Moscow, Nov. 18.—Meetings have been prohibited by order of the minister of the interior and the railroad stations and shops are under military guard.

Attempt to Assassinate Governor.

Riga, Russia, Nov. 18.—An attempt was made today to assassinate the governor of Riga. While he was riding in a carriage through the streets a shot was fired at him from an alley, but the bullet missed its mark. The would-be assassin escaped.

WOMEN FAINT AT BULL FIGHT.

Angry Beast Attacks Matadors and a Panic Ensues.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—A dispatch to the Tribune from El Paso, Tex., says:

The bull fight at Ciudad, Juarez, yesterday given for the American mining convention, there was a panic when Felix Robert, the French matador, who claims to be the only matador of that nationality, was tossed in the air and carried from the arena, bruised and bleeding. Later the same bull made a run and plunged its long, sharp horns through Hatador Francisco Alonzio Piquiro, tossing him into the air first, then dragging him about the ring, blood streaming from the wounds in the man's body.

The spectators sickened at the sight and women fainted and screamed to be carried out. The arena was packed with Americans from every section of the United States, few of whom had ever seen a bull fight, and for a time the situation was serious. Many men rushed from the sickening sight in horror, while the women in many instances were carried out unconscious.

Order was finally restored, but most of the Americans left, deciding that they had already seen enough of the Mexican and Spanish national sport, although this was only the second bull up for slaughter out of the four marked for the matador's sword.

TOURIST EXCURSIONS STOPPED.

California Lines Will No Longer Run Them From East.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Tribune today says that the California lines have by an order issued yesterday put a stop to the personally conducted tourists excursions which have been flourishing in that field for years. Not only will a large number of railroad conductors, probably 125, whose salaries average $100 a month each, lose their positions, at least one tourist excursion bureau which makes a specialty of personally conducted tourists to California be driven out of the business.

During the day the connections of the Santa Fe, Southern Parific and San Pedro lines were notified that hereafter these roads will not accept tourist cars containing pernoally conducted parties and they will not even take the cars which started out as personally conducted parties, even if the personal conductor is not on the train during the haul over these lines. The reason given for taking this action is that travel to the Pacific coast has become so common that travelers generally are familiar with the way.

France's Answer a Veiled Threat.

New York, Nov. 18.—The following message from President Castro of Venezuela to the Herald is printed by that paper today: "The answer of France is a veiled threat, discarding the memorandum remitted by Mr. Russell's proposition every conciliatory method. Public opinion unanimously supports the attitude of the government in seeking reconciliation, but firmly sustaining the authority of tribunals, recognized by America, but spurned by the country of France. The Paris edition of the Herald is reproduced here with satisfaction as telling the truth and corresponding with the memorandum. (Signed) Castro, Caracas, Venezuela."

Officer's Resignation Accepted.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—A dispatchc to the Record-Herald from Washington says that President Roosevelt yesterday accepted the resignation of Lieutenant Granville R. Forteaque, Tenth United States cavalry. Lieutenant Forteque has been named as one of the several corespondents in the suit for divorce brought by Major Elmore Taggart, U. S. A., against his wife at Wooster, O. Last winter he was on duty at the White House social functions.

Uprising in Cuba.

New York, Nov. 18.—A cable dispatch to the Herald from Havana says that news received here at a late hour says that an uprising has occurred at Manzanillo and that troops, supposedly destined for Santiago, are really for the later place. Senor Andrade, secretary of the government, said that nothing absolute was known but that the government wanted to take all possible precautions to prevent a repetition of the Cienfuegos incident.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 18.—William R. Hearst, candidate for mayor of New York city on the Municipal Ownership ticket, certified to the secretary of state today that his total campaign expenses were $65,843. This breaks he record for such expenses which was formerly held by Governor Higgins, who during the last state campaign spent $22,000.

Mr. Hearst says he contributed all but $17,488 of the $80,206 which was spent by the finance committee of the Municipal Ownership league for the benefit of all the candidates on the ticket and expended $4,125 personally for buttons and lithographs. Some of the large items are:

Two Race Horses Accidentally Killed.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 18.—Two race horses were accidentally killed at Ascott park yesterday. Watched $15,000 Burn in Stove.

Chicago, Nov. 18—Mrs. Charlotte M. Weightman, who recently brought suit against her husband for separate maintenance, today told Judge Pretano during the hearing of her case that she believed that her husband had spent her money and therefore threw money and securities valued at $15,000 into the stove and watched them burn. She afterward left her husband. A decree giving the woman $25 a month was awarded.

Bonaparte Differs with Roosevelt.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says that differences of opinion appear to exist between the president and his secretary of the navy on the subject of naval extension. The president has been urging the necessity for a big navy, and pushed his views at times to a point where he could not get congress to follow him. Secretary Bonaparte is opposed to this. The secretary has decided to turn down the recommendation of the board of which Admiral Dewey is president, for the construction of three new battleships. This plan was adopted by the general board to support the president's known wishes.

2,000 BALES OF COTTON BURNED

Fleecy Staple to the Amount of $150,000 Goes Up in Smoke.

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 18.—A million-dollar cotton fire was narrowly avoided in Columbus and as it was $150,000 worth of the fleecy staple went up in smoke.

Over 2,000 bales on the grounds used jointly by the Central of Georgia railway company and the Atlantic Compress company were burned to ashes and 1,000 bales were badly damaged, while hundreds of bales were badly scorched.

The cotton destroyed was being kept in an open space north of Thirteenth street, just south of the Central railway's round house, and was awaiting compression.

A spark from a Central of Georgia switch engine set fire to the grass and the flames spread to the cotton, a few feet away.

A stiff wind was blowing, and the fire swept over the 4 acres of cotton bales like the burning of a sedge field. The fire department arrived promptly and put seven streams of water on the cotton, but only about one-third of the cotton north of Thirteenth street was saved. South of Thirteenth street and on the compress platforms were many thousand bales, the total cotton on hand awaiting compress aggregating between 16,000 and 17,000 bales.

With Broken Neck Man Lived.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 18.—With the death of George Handforth, 28 years old, at the Methodist hospital ended what is said to be the most remarkable case of survival with a broken neck known in the annals of medicine and surgery. For fifteen months the injured man lay on air and water mattresses, suffering no pain, unable to move any muscle except those in his forearms, always conscious, but gradually wasting away. From a strong, stalwart man, weighing 160 pounds, Handforth weighed at the time of his death only 134 pounds. Handforth was employed at the Atlantic Refining company's plant. On August 19, 1904, he fell from the top of a tank and struck the ground on his back, fracturing the fifth and sixth vertebrae.

Reduced Salary One-Half.

New York, Nov. 18.—At a special meeting of the board of trustees of the Mautual Life Insurance company in this city at which a preliminary report of the recently appointed special investigating committee was submitted, President Richard A. McCurdy caused stir announcing that at his own request his salary had been cut in half—from $150,000 to $75,000 a year. This action was taken at a meeting of the finance committee, and Mr. McCurdy made the first step in reducing the expenses of the company. Salaries of the other officers of the company also have been reduced, the saving amounting in all to between $145,000 and $150,000 per annum.

Wealthy Farmer Commits Suicide.

St. Appoline, Quebec, Nov. 18.—Believing that he had murdered his wife Alexander Labrie, a wealthy farmer yesterday committed suicide. ARREST ALLEGED PICKPOCKETS

Seven Suspicious Characters Locked in Jail—Been Following Circus.

Valdosta, Ga., Nov. 18.—Seven alleged pickpockets were arrested here this morning and are being held for investigation.

It is said to be a gang which has been following Ringling's circus all through Georgia and Florida.

The circus detective had them spotted and put the local police watching them. This morning B. T. Roberts was robbed of $111 as he boarded a train to Philadelphia, and R. T. Upton was "touched" for a hundred at the same time.

Two prominent passengers from Atlanta saw the robberies and later pointed out the men to the police.

They had tickets for Thomasville, where the circus shows today. They gave their names as James King, of Birmingham; Joan Burton, of Montgomery; Ed Cole, of Memphis; Frank Morgan, of Louisville; J. A. Morris, of Memphis; James Hickey, of Marion, Ind., and Sam Ackerman, of Memphis.

The men are being held for investigation.

John L. Nixon, of Augusta, was appointed temporary receiver and at once gave bond of $10,000. The petitioners aver that the total indebtedness of the concern is $6,528.28, and declare that it is insolvent. The movants further state that the Katie, one of the largest steamers of the line, has been tied up for some time at its wharf in Augusta, and that it is rapidly falling into a bad state of repair.

Physician Allowed Bail.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 18.—Dr. Luther Chiles, charged with criminal malpractice on Miss Sara Atkinson, now ill in the Norfolk Protestant hospital, has been admitted to bail by Judge Henckel in the sum of $10,000. The prisoner, feeble in health and barely able to walk from the city jail to the court room, was brought into court by the sergeant with his son supporting him. Chief of Police Bowers stated that Dr. Doughty, Miss Atkinson's attending physician, had announced that while there was a general improvement in the patient's condition, she was still seriously ill, and it could not be said that she would recover.

ALACHUA'S STATE FAIR DISPLAY

It is a Credit to the County and to Major J. W. Tench.

PEOPLE ARE PROUD OF IT

Everything Shown Is Arranged With Much Care and Taste—The School Exhibit Is Admired by All—The System Praised.

A number of Gainesville people returned from the State Fair at Tampa on Saturday night, and all are loud in their praises of the entire exhibition. It is said to far surpass any fair ever held in Florida and the various counties are represented in the best possible manner, the fruit and vegetable displays being grand.

The display of Alachua county is worthy of much praise, and to Major Tench is due many praises for his untiring efforts in bringing to the front with the meagre means at hand one of the finest exhibits at the Fair. Dr. Kelley says it is a credit to any county, and requests The Sun to inform those who promised to send fresh stuff during the Fair to keep their agreement.

The school exhibit of Alachua county, which was arranged by County Superintendent Kelley, is meeting with the approval of the large crowds who view it. There are many things about it that attract all who are interested in education, and to Dr. Kelley and wife is due the praise. The Doctor returned home Saturday, but Mrs. Kelley is in charge of the booth and will remain until the close of the Fair.

The money expended by Alachua county will come back three-fold, as her displays will still keep her in the front rank of the counties of the State.

WANT AND NEED.

There's a big difference between what a baby wants and what he needs. Deny him the one, give him the other. Most babies need Scott's Emulsion—it's the right thing for a baby. It contains a lot of strength-building qualities that their food may not contain. After a while they get to want it. Why? Because it makes them comfortable. Those dimples and round cheeks mean health and ease. Scott's Emulsion makes children easy; keeps them so, too.

THE COTTON SEED INDUSTRY.

The United Kingdom Consumes Much of This Product.

Washington, Nov. 18.—The government crop reported in its latest issue prints a report from London showing that for cotton seed and the products derived therefrom is a more extensive market in the United Kingdom than exists in any other country of Europe. The cotton seed industry of the United Kingdom, dependent wholly for its supply of the raw material upon imported seed, produces an exportable surplus of the chief product, oil, but is still heavily dependent upon foreign countries for its supply of the by-product, the popular and valuable cattle food, oil-cake.

The report says:

"The commercial distribution of the products is confined almost entirely to the United Kingdom. For the kingdom as a whole there has been a decline in recent years in the importation of cotton seed, but the decline in recent years in the importation of cotton seed, but the decline has been more than made good to the crushing industry by increased importations of flaxseed and rape seed, the imports of the former having doubled and those of the latter having increased by one-third within two years."

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

KING OF ALL DISEASES

To Contagious Blood Poison rightfully belongs the name King of all Diseases. It is the most powerful of all human ailments—corrupting every part of the body and wrecking and ruining the lives of those unfortunate enough to contract it. When the first sign appears in the form of an insignificant sore or ulcer, few persons realize that the deadly virus has entered the blood; but so potent is the poison that one drop will vitiate and pollute the purest and healthiest blood, and in a short time the degrading and horrible symptoms begin to appear. The mouth and throat ulcerate, the glands in the neck and groins swell, the hair and eye-brows fall out, copper-colored spots appear on the body, and in the latter stages of the disease the poison even works down and destroys the bones. No other disease is so highly contagious, and many have contracted it and suffered its awful consequences through a friendly hand-shake, handling the clothing of one afflicted with it, or drinking from the same vessel. S. S. S., The King of Blood Purifiers, is the only cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It goes down into the circulation and forces out every particle of the virus. It is nature's antidote for this peculiar poison, and cures the disease in all its stages, and cures it permanently. S. S. S. does not hide or cover up any of the poison to break out in future years, but so completely eradicates it from the blood that no signs are ever seen again. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, we offer $1,000 for proof that it contains a particle of mineral of any kind. Book with instructions for home treatment and any medical advice you desire will be furnished by our physicians without charge.

A Disastrous Calamity.

It is a disastrous calamity when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at all drug stores; 25c.

Keep Your Head Clear

The surest thing on earth to get a man's system "out of whack" is heavy, soggy bread, which is caused by several reasons: First, the material may not be good; second, the cooking may be poor. The best flour in the world will make the heaviest bread if improperly mixed or cooked. WE USE THE BEST FLOUR and our "long suit" is knowing how to mix and bake it. Our bread does not cost any more than home-made, and in many instances it is so much more palatable.

C M. Bell of Waldo has decided to establish a bakery and confectionery store in this city and will probably arrive in the next day or two for completing arrangements for the same. The business will be conducted in the Hill Block, corner East Liberty and University streets, while the baking will be done in a building recently erected for the purpose on University street. A large and modern oven will be installed having a capacity of 500 loaves. Mr. Bell is a young man full of ambition and will doubtless build up a nice trade here. GREAT LECTURE TONIGHT.

Col. Sam Small, The Famous Evangelist, at the Opera House.

This (Sunday) evening at 8 o'clock Col. Sam W. Small, the celebrated evangelist and popular lecturer, will deliver at the opera house his famous moral, psychic and pithy lecture on "His Majesty, The Devil" This discourse has become a noted one on the American platform and received the hearty voluntary commendation of Presidents Cleveland and McKinley, Bishops Mallalieu and Fowler, and by the press and clergy everywhere.

By accidental events Col. Small, of the staff of Governor Terrell of Goergia, found it possible to remain over in Gainesville today and deliver this admirable discourse to our people, who many years ago heard him with great delight.

There will be no charge for the lecture. The public is cordially invited to hear it and then contribute what they will for the necessary cost of the arrangements of hall, lights, etc.

There will doubtless be a crowded audience to hear the brilliant orator and his unique address.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. GREATEST HORSE SHOW.

New York Is Witnessing the Largest Exhibition in History.

New York, Nov. 18.—The largest horse show New York has ever had, with the most horses, the biggest attendance and the greatest display of social celebrities, fine gowns and costly jewels, began its fifth and next to the last day's exhibition today favored by perfect weather.

Excitement of several kinds was on today's program. A race for first honors among exhibitors of beautiful horses waged between Aaron Jordon of Boston, and Mrs. John Gherkin of Brooklyn, was to be decided today. At the close of last night's competition Mr. Jordan, winner of last year's horse show, led Mrs. Gherkin by the narrow margine of one blue ribbon, having in all eight of these trophies.

The promised presence of Prince Louis, of Battenburg, at the show today was another attraction. The prince announced that his purpose in the second visit was to look at the horses, and that he might buy a few of them for his use in England. In the tanbark arena itself an unusually exciting event, was scheduled for today, namely the pig pen jump.

Italian Queen to Visit America.

New York, Nov. 18.—It was learned yesterday, says the Tribune, that the announcement made so many times and denied that Queen Dowager Margaret, of Italy, was coming to America, was true. A Tribune reporter was told by a trustworthy informant that Queen Margaret had decided to come to the United States next year. She is anxious to see America and traveling incognito, will make a tour in an automobile from New York to San Francisco, whence she wil ltake a steamer for Japan.

No Deficit Is Likely.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Among the subjects discussed by the president with some of his callers was the probable condition of the treasury at the end of the current fiscal year. It is the consensus of opinion among senators and representatives who have talked to the president about the matter that the deficit in the treasury this year, if any at all, should appear, will be small. They point to the increased revenues of the treasury during the past three or four months as an indication, despite the somewhat increased expenditures, that no alarming deficit is likely.

SUNSTROKES.

Fools and fads both begin with the same letter and both are present in large numbers.

There is one thing about a Keeley institute that they will not guarantee, and that is to give a man ability to use good judgment. The remedy will restore the system, but if the head is lacking the case is hopeless.

How's your kidneys? An English M. D. claims to have discovered that insanity and other nervous diseases are due in a large percentage of cases to movable kidneys and may be cured by a comparatively simple surgical operation. So when a man is conspicuous for mental soundness we must no longer say that his head is level, but that his kidneys are in the right place.

The cost of sea coast defenses come high but we must have them. The engineers want $16,000,000 more to complete the fortifications of the sea coasts of the United States. There has already been appropriated for this purpose $28,693,434. Permanent projects at 31 different points have been adopted and most are well under way.

The fellows who think that Ohio is a doubtful State may be right. But that is the trouble with some people; they have too much confidence in the Buckeyes. The election of Pattison has but little political significance. The Presidential campaign, when Federal offices are at stake, will make a difference in the vote.

New Orleans business men are talking of organizing a five million dollar life insurance company. We don't know much about life insurance, but would like to be president.

The free distribution of seeds by Uncle Sam will commence December 1st and in about three months from the time the people who used them will be mad at their uncle.

A pretender to the throne of Russia has appeared. If he finds it as hot as the present occupant, he won't want to hold it down until it gets cooled off a little.

"The great cause of education is too important to be made the plaything of sentiment or local ambition," says The St. Augustine Record.

They had a $150,000 cotton fire at Columbus, Ga., a few days ago, thus sending up 2,000 bales in smoke.

There will be large crowds at the State Fair next week. It is a hummer and excels all others.

NORTH AND SOUTH.

There is much talk in regard to President Roosevelt's visit to the South and the impression made, both on the President and on the South, which could be easily understood by any, all, if they would enjoy the same experience as President Roosevelt and make a similar tour. There is little or no difference between the people of both sections. Both are Americans and proud of it. It is doubtful in the mind of the writer if you could find a man in the North but what is proud of the rapid progress being made in the South and if they could only come and see for themselves would be prouder still.

When President Roosevelt came he found men of his own stamp of character; he saw the South as a part of his own native land and its people as his people, hence it is not surprising that he conquered a place in their hearts which nothing can ever obliterate.

Himself an ardent American and worshiping at the shrine of its loftiest ideals he found here that he was standing on common ground with the Southern people who have ever bowed at the same altars and stood for the same patriotic principles.

The President came as an honest man, says The Chattanooga Tradesman, with honest words of admiration for what the South loved most and at once the hearts of the people were opened to him as none could have prophecied would ever occur. His words of greeting to Mrs. Jackson, "the widow of the great Stonewall Jackson," as he involuntarily exclaimed, and as being worth his whole trip to have met, was the manliest tribute that he could have paid to the holiest memories of the South and it made him thenceforth as one of our own people.

The trip was indeed a great one. Great for the President, for he knows the South as he never knew it before, and great for the South, as it can now challenge the world through a channel that will not be questioned as to its loyal devotion to what this nation stands for—genuine Americanism.

The President knows now and the world likewise knows that the enemies of this republic are not to be found in the South, but that here exists the strongest bulwarks of patriotism that remain on this continent.

President Roosevelt is a wonderful man and the South is perhaps prouder of him today than is any other portion of this country. May that friendship and confidence never be less on either side. The whole country needs such a leader at this time and that leader needs the South to sustain him in his efforts to carry forward this government to its manifest destiny.

THE BUCKMAN BILL.

For the sake of the State's educational interests, if for no other reason, the final fate of the Buckman school bill should be immediately determined. If the present controversy is to drag along month after month very serious harm cannot but result. An overwhelming majority of the people of Florida would, if the matter were put to a referendum, support the action already taken by the Board of Control. Of course Lake City grieves over the change that removes the State University to Gainesville, but its citizens should make the best of the situation and not try to hinder plans which if put into effect will give the State an education system a thousand times better than that which has hitherto prevailed. This fact all students of the new move acknowledge.—St. Augustine Record.

People will never learn that you can't always judge from appearances. There are well dressed dummies walking about the streets all the time.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle.

JORDAN'S COTTON CAMPAIGN.

Old-time bulls are getting together, and at a conference held in New Orleans a day or two ago, at which there were present such men as Frank B. Hayne, W. P. Brown, Harvie Jordan, President of the Southern Cotton Association, and others equally as active in sustaining the price of American grown cotton, definite plans were adopted for the launching of the most ambitious bull campaign that the cotton world has yet had to consider. This is nothing more nor less than the tieing up under contract of some 3,000,000 bales of cotton which is to be held until the mills are ready to pay 15 cents per pound, basis middling, for it.

In defense of the practicability of this plan, it was pointed out that the current crop can hardly exceed 10,000,000 bales; that the world's spinning and weaving industry is now breaking all previous records in the matter of new business and general prosperity; that most of the mills are sold up for a year to come on a basis of 14 cents cotton, and have not as yet purchased the actual cotton with which to fulfil their contracts; that the farmer and not the speculator is entitled to profit by the shortness of the crop; that a very large portion of the crop has already been sold below its value, and that the remainder must bring 15 cents if the season's average price is to reach 12½ cents, which is low when contrasted with the world's requirements and the 1905 yield.

President Jordan announces his intention of immediately sending canvassers through the cotton States. These canvassers will call on the farmers and planters as rapidly as possible and secure from them written pledges to hold as many bales as they can—the number of bales to be stated—until the absence of cotton offered for sale, meeting an increasing demand for supplies, shall have brought the bid price up to 15 cents. Meanwhile the efforts of speculative "shorts" to cover at once the pressure on them is felt, will, it is believed, exert a signal and favorable effect on the market both in America and Europe.

The cause of temperance seems to be making real headway in the United States. For the first time in almost a decade the annual report of the United States commissioner of internal revenue shows a decline in the amount of whiskey consumed in this country. The figures for the year ending June 30, 1905, show a decrease of 704 640 gallons of whiskey consumed as against 1903-4, while up to 1903 for many years the annual increase of whiskey consumption had been about 7,000,000 gallons. Beer for the year 1904-5 still showed an increased consumption, but less by 70,000,000 gallons than in preceding years.

Nine steamboats and forty lighters have been purchased for the work of the Key West extension of the Florida East Coast railway and this fleet is now on its way to the scene of activity. The company already has twenty-six additional lighthers on the work.

The tax books for 1905 show an increase of $52,509 in the total assessed valuation of real and personal property in Levy county. The total assessed valuation for 1904 was $1,718,037. For the year 1905 it is $1,770,546. Not so bad, is it?—Levy Times-Democrat.

Florida will undoubtedly have the heaviest tourist business in its history the present winter. Every train and every Clyde ship is entering the State crowded with passengers thus early and the volume increases with the days. Thus far this season the tourist business is fully 20 per cent heavier than for the same period last year.

Some thief entered the home of W. S. Harris, on Van Buren street, some time Wednesday afternoon and secured about fifteen dollars worth of goods. Mrs. Harris had gone up town, leaving the cook to look after the house. The cook claims that she went to sleep on the floor and that she knew nothing of the robbery.—Live Oak Democrat.

At a meeting of the life insurance policy holders in Jacksonville to consider matters in regard to the recent investigations in New York, it was resolved that a committee of five be appointed "to consider the advisability of appointing one or more proxies to the annual meetings of the representative insurance companies and to devise a plan for a permanent organization of policy-holders of the State of Florida and to provide for a fair distribution of the expense of such action as may be agreed upon; said committee to report to a meeting of policy holders called by the chairman of this meeting."

Judge Palmer hit the nail on the head the other day when he advised the colored people to shun the preacher among them who stooped to steal, and when he said that there were many of that race wearing the cloak of religion only to prey on the unwary, he stated a fact. There are many colored preachers in this State who are among the biggest scoundrels unhung, and who have donned the garb of a preacher only to keep from work and to assist them in their rascality. There are a great many good and honest colored people in and out of the church, and in no county are they more industrious and better behaved than in Suwannee. But here as well as in other sections they are made the victims of transient negro preachers who rob them of their earnings under the guise of religion. Judge Palmer intimated that the Legislature ought to prevent to some extent organizations and societies among the colored people, owing to the fact that they are too often the means of trouble and too seldom of any benefit to the race and the community.—Live Oak Daily Democrat.

"I'm Well

In almost every hamlet—every neighborhood—there are living examples of what Liquozone can do. Wherever you are, you need not go far to find some one who has been helped by it.

Talk to some of those cured ones; perhaps your own friends are among them. Ask if they advise you to try Liquozone. Or let us buy you a bottle, and learn its power for yourself. If you need help, please don't wait longer; don't stay sick. Let us show to you—as we have to millions—what Liquozone can do.

What Liquozone Is.

The virtues of Liquozone are derived solely from gases. The formula is sent to each user. The process of making requires large apparatus, and from 8 to 14 days' time. It is directed by chemists of the highest class. The object is to so fix and combine the gases as to carry into the system a powerful tonic-germicide.

Contact with Liquozone kills any form of disease germ, because germs are of vegetable origin. Yet to the body Liquozone is not only harmless, but helpful in the extreme. That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poison when taken internally. That is why medicine has been so helpless in a germ disease. Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying; yet no disease germ can exist in it.

We purchased the American rights to Liquozone after thousands of tests had been made with it. Its power had been proved, again and again, in the most difficult germ diseases. Then we offered to supply the first bottle free in every disease that required it. And over one million dollars have been spent to announce and fulfill this offer.

The result is that 11,000,000 bottles have been used, mostly in the past two years. Today there are countless cured ones, scattered everywhere, to tell what Liquozone has done.

But so many others need it that this offer is published still. In late years, science has traced scores of diseases to germ attacks. Old remedies do not apply to them. We wish to show those sick ones—at our cost—what Liquozone can do.

Where It Applies.

These are the diseases in which Liquozone has been most employed. In these it has earned its widest reputation. In all of these troubles we supply the first bottle free. And in all—no matter how difficult—we offer each user a two months' further test without the risk of a penny.

Shot Man in Atlanta Hotel.

Atlanta, Nov. 18.—Frank B. Meador, a real estate dealer and recently a state quarantine inspector, shot and seriously wounded Mendal Rawak, a clerk at the cigar stand in the Kimball house. Rawak was taken to the Grady hospital in the ambulance, and Meador left the hotel and could not be found by the police. Rawak was shot in the left groin, and while the wound is serious, the hospital physicians do not think it will prove fatal unless unforseen complications should set in.

Small Boil Causes Death.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 18.—Wheeler Hancock, 20 years of age, a student of the Piedmont Industrial school, died at 4 o'clock this morning after an illness of 12 hours from blood poisoning. For several days young Hancock had a small boil on his upper lip, to which he gave slight attention, since it bothered him but little. The boil increased in size and his face began to swell. He became desperately ill and though he received every medical attention, he died.

No Case of Pneumonia on Record.

We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. J. W. McCollum & Co.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans of Carlisle Center, N. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to anyone suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." A Few Suggestions as to Negligees. Dressing Jackets of China Silk—Japanese Crepe With Butterflies—Chantilly Lace Veils the Newest Caper.

By RENE DEVERAUX.

When in search of a gift for a woman fond of dainty apparel—and, by the way, the Christmas season is close upon us—choose one of this season's charming negligees, and it may safely be said you'll be certain to please. Never have I seen so great a variety of exquisitely made breakfast jackets, becoming dressing sacks, practical bath robes and luxurious lounging gowns, all ready to slip into when the occasion calls for them. So bewitching indeed are they that one is tempted to pardon all manner of extravagance. In fact, some of these are fashioned of materials equally appropriate for evening gowns, while others, quite as effective, are delightfully simple, their chief charm lying in their grace of outline and an artistic manner of trimming. There are crepe de chine negligees with lace insets throughout, plain and beruffled, and others simply edged with hand embroidered scallops. Of course the real Japanese crepe kimonos are the handsomest things of the kind to be found.

An exceedingly picturesque one of these was of a soft shade of blue crepe, upon which were embroidered gorgeous butterflies of all sizes and colors, gold with brown tipped wings predominating.

A soft white Japanese crepe was elaborately adorned with hand embroidered storks with outstretched wings, and a less expensive kimono was made of a brilliant shade of crimson crepe cloth with artistic bunches of Japanese chrysanthemums scattered upon it.

A very lovely little dressing sack, which could be easily copied at home, was of pink albatross, side plaited upon a tiny yoke back and front, its low, round neck and elbow sleeves being finished with a dainty buttonhole stitch worked in pink floss. A novel feature was the front yoke fastening, which was formed of broad white satin ribbons laced through four large silk covered rings, the ribbons tied and hanging to the skirt of the gown in front.

The newest breakfast jackets are very short skirted, reaching but a trifle below the waist line. An exceedingly beconing model is shown in the cut. This little negligee is made of rose pink china silk trimmed with a dainty pattern of valenciennes lace inset above the hem and applied in a tiny bolero effect. There is a bit of hand embroidery on the front of the yoke, and the neck is finished with a soft lace ruffle drawn up with pink ribbons run through beading. The short flowing sleeves are fully plaited and finished at the bottom with two rows of inserting above the hem.

A fetching blue albatross gown was strikingly trimmed with rows of narrow black velvet ribbon applied in a Grecian design down the front and extending entirely around the skirt of the gown. This well executed design also edged the flowing sleeves.

For extremely cold weather—in fact, at any time during the winter—there is no fabric more comfortable for lounging robes than soft, pliable English corduroy. This material does not crush and is very delightful to the touch. A luxurious "rest gown" was made of mouse gray corduroy, plainly fashioned and tied with a silver cord and tassel. Where the gown fell open at the bottom a soft lining of china blue silk was disclosed. A rose colored corduroy was lined with a deeper shade of rose.

Those who fancied for a moment that the popularity of the draped veil was on the wane were never more badly mistaken. In Paris veils are more than ever the rage this season. There are a few variations, however, in texture and the mode of wearing them, noticeable among which is to swathe the crown of the hat in its folds scarf fashion. The thin meshed imitation chantilly veil is the present mode, ultra fashionables adopting taupe, the new color, and a darker shade of gray.

[Our readers may have any question concerning fashion or fabrics answered without charge by Rene Deveraux, the fashion expert, by addressing Rene Deveraux, P. O. Box 269, Madison Square, New York, inclosing stamp for reply.]

Man's Unreasonableness

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, manager of The Republican of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

An Old Freedom Notice.

On April 26, 1859, a Maine newspaper contained the following notice: "Freedom Notice.—For a valuable consideration I have this day relinquished to my son, Hiram S. Maxim, his time during his minority. I shall claim none of his earnings or pay debts of his contracting after this date. Isaac Maxim. Witness, D. D. Flynt. Abbot, April 13, 1860." The lad who was given his liberty developed into Sir Hiram Maxim of London, England, the inventor of rapid fire guns and airships.

The Hindoo Mother.

The relation of a Hindoo husband to his wife is not like a contract sanctioned by the court of justice, but it is a permanent spiritual relation which binds two souls together. A wife is regarded, therefore, as a true helpmate in the spiritual progress of the soul life of her husband, while a faithful husband is considered to be the greatest blessing in the earthly and spiritual career of his wife. When she becomes a mother she represents divine motherhood and holds a unique position in the household.

A Hindoo mother is actually worshiped as a living goddess by her children. The children are taught to obey their parents implicitly and to serve them like earthly deities as long as they live. To support the parents in their old age, to look after their welfare and to fulfill their desires are the duties of children in every Hindoo household. But a mother is considered to be "greater than a thousand fathers."—Swami Abhedananda in Good Housekeeping.

The Chief and the Missionary.

Once upon a time a great preacher came to the camp of the Muskogees and had a powwow with Chief Tumechichee. The great preacher insisted upon leading Chief Tumechichee to the cross, saying: "It is too bad to have no religion. I have and to spare. Come and be a Christian, and, lo, you will be great in the land. Pray, and the Great Spirit will hear you and grant your prayer. You and your people shall not want anything." The old chief listened attentively and answered: "I do not like your religion. It makes an unworthy man too familiar with the Great Spirit, and too much praying may cause one to ask for too much. Before you came to my camp I and my people believed the Great Spirit would continue to take care of us, as in the past, and our faith is still unchanged. We cannot embrace your religion." So saying, the old chief retired to his wigwam.—Eufaula Journal.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier (New Zealand) Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that were sold in that market. Out of the entire list they found only one that they declared was entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. This remedy is for sale by all druggists

Superstition of Devonshire.

Devonshire is known to the world for its superstitious usages, which defy all efforts to uproot them. To name only one example, when a person dies all the relatives must touch the body or they will be haunted by the ghost of the dead forever after. A superstition not so local in its observance is that of beginning no task on a Friday. The writer recently encountered a girl who, receiving notice to change from one room to another on Friday, insisted upon doing it on Thursday instead. But the most curious instance of superstition—and this, too, is met with much nearer home than Devon—is surely that which prescribes that when, say, a domestic servant has broken a piece of crockery she is bound by fate to break two other pieces. So far is this idea carried that the writer knows a case where flowerpots are kept for the special purpose of being broken to appease the fates.—London Chronicle.

DIVERS' PARALYSIS.

This Disease Affects Its Victims Only Out of Water.

"Divers' paralysis," said the second mate, "proves homeopathy to be a fact. Homeopathy says that like cures like. For instance, if you have a fever take something that produces a fever, and you will recover. Well, divers' paralysis backs up this claim.

"The disease afflicts the pearl divers of Ceylon and the sponge divers of the Mediterranean. It attacks only the best men, the ones who go down deepest and stay longest, and it is supposed to be caused by the swift changes from one pressure of water to another that the diver undergoes when he pops up to the surface.

"This paralysis makes the diver quite helpless out of water. Yet under water it disappears altogether. The water causes divers' paralysis. The water in a truly homeopathic manner takes every vestige of the disease away.

"To the oyster beds of Ceylon and to the sponge fisheries of the Mediterranean many of the best divers are carried like infants. Helpless as logs, they lie in a row on the decks in the sunshine till their turn comes to descend. Then in Ceylon the pearl diver is carried to the boat's edge. He sits there, his hands on his knees, as if lost in thought (he is getting his breath), and suddenly—pop—he rolls awkwardly into the water. And the instant he disappears all his agility returns to him, and as easily as a boy would dive five feet after a white stone he dives over a hundred feet after the hidden pearls.

"With the paralyzed sponge diver it is the same story. Only, since he holds a heavy stone in his arms to bear him down to the bottom, he must be carried to the boat's side and dropped over bodily.

"These paralytics are like fish—awkward, helpless, flopping hideously about the deck, but the moment you toss them overboard away they dart, quick, graceful, dolphin-like."—New York Herald.

ETIQUETTE AMONG PEERS.

Rules Laid Down to Preserve the Dignity of Their Chamber.

Besides insisting upon all due respect to themselves the peers suffer no disrespect to the stately gilded chamber in which they are accustomed to assemble. Even when parliament is not in session none but members are allowed to be covered there. Not even the eldest son of any peer may wear his hat in the room. "Neither is any person to stay there, nor any attendant on any nobleman but while he brings in his lord, and then he is to retire himself."

In 1703 official notice was taken of the fact that of late the doorkeepers have frequently presumed to come within the doors when the house is sitting, and it was therefore ordered that for the future this liberty be forbidden. Another point in which the peers are scrupulous to preserve their dignity is revealed in the standing order with reference to conferences between the two houses.

It sets forth that "the place of our meeting with the lower house upon conference is usually the painted chamber, where they are commonly before we come and expect our leisure. We are to come thither in a whole body and not some lords scattering before the rest, which both takes from the gravity of the lords and besides may hinder the lords from taking their proper places. We are to sit there and be covered, but they are not at any committee or conference either to be covered or sit down in our presence unless it be some infirm person and that by connivance in a corner out of sight, to sit, but not to be covered."

Trick of the Drug Trade.

"Never ask for the copy of a prescription at the time you buy the medicine," said the dyspeptic looking man. "In nine out of ten drug stores they will tack 10 or 15 cents to the regular price of the medicine if you do. That of course is contrary to professional etiquette. Druggists are not supposed to charge extra for furnishing a copy of a prescription. If you will wait a few days and ask for it, unaccompanied by a bottle of medicine, they won't have the nerve to do it, but when the two are prepared together they can gain some compensation for their extra work and the loss of a possible customer without anybody being the wiser."—New York Press.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

RAPID WRITERS.

Authors Who Did a Great Deal of Work In Little Time.

The rapidity of the ancient writers is seen from the great number of works prepared by them. Livy, for instance, wrote 142 books. Among the Romans, Cicero often wrote three or four important works in a single year. Of later writers, Dr. Johnson, Scott and Byron were all rapid writers. Byron, it is related, wrote "The Corsair" in ten days, while Scott wrote a work for which he was paid £1,000 in ten days. "Rab and His Friends," by Dr. John Brown, was written, it is said, at a single sitting.

The story is told that Dean Shipley once said to Heber, "Suppose you write a hymn for the service tomorrow morning," and by the next morning the hymn known all around the world, "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," was written, printed and used in that day's missionary service. Chalmers was once asked how long it took to prepare a sermon. He replied: "That depends on how long you want it. If your sermon is to be half an hour long, it will take you three days; if it is to be three-quarters of an hour, it will take two or perhaps one, but if you are going to preach an hour, then there is not much occasion to think a great deal about it. It may be done in an hour."

Samuel Johnson would write at a single sitting the manuscript for forty-eight printed octavo pages. In one week he wrote "Rasselas" to pay for his mother's funeral, sent it off to the publishers without reading it over and was paid £100 for it.

SARCASTIC DEAN SWIFT.

Rules and Directions For Servants That He Wrote.

There was a servant problem when Dean Swift was alive just as there is today, and he died in 1745. In his "Rules and Directions For Servants" he wrote: "When you have broken all your earthen vessels below stairs, which is usually done in a week, the copper pot will do as well. It can boil milk, heat porridge, hold small beer. Apply it indifferently to all these uses, but never wash or scour it." And again: "If you want paper to singe a fowl, tear the first book you see about the house. Wipe your shoes, for want of a clout, on the bottom of a curtain or a damask napkin." "In roasting and boiling," he goes on, "use none but the large coals and save the small ones for the fires above stairs." Another touch that might have been written today is the following: "When a butler cleans the plate leave the whiting plainly to be seen in all the chinks, for fear your lady should not believe you had cleaned it." Once more: "There are several ways of putting out a candle. You may run the candle end against the wainscot, which puts the snuff out immediately; you may lay it on the ground and tread the snuff out with your foot; you may hold it upside down until it is choked in its own grease or cram it into the socket of the candlestick; you may whirl it round in your hand till it goes out."

Red Sea Pearls.

Pearl fisheries, of which the world hears little, but which constitute a considerable industry, are carried on at the Lohia islands, in the lower end of the Red sea. Very few of these pearls find their way to European or American markets, because the local demand almost absorbs the output. Pearls are the most popular of all gems among the inhabitants of India and Arabia and it is seldom that a native woman of any social position is seen without pearl ornaments of some kind, either finger rings, earrings or rings for the nose, and even the feet.

Went For a Soldier.

At one of the London police courts a young hooligan was being tried for an assault on an elderly man. The magistrate, noticing an old customer in the hooligan, thought he would give him a little fatherly advice, and remarked: "Young man, I'm surprised at a big, strong, healthy looking fellow like you always getting into trouble. Why, you seem to be always wanting to fight. Why don't you go for a soldier?" Imagine the smile which illuminated the magistrate's face when the youth replied, "I did once, your honor, and he nearly killed me."

The Risk Too Great.

"I may be young," said the very young man, "but my love for your daughter is as strong and true as if I were whitened by the snows of innumerable winters."

"Oh, I don't doubt your love," replied the stern father, "but have you ever had the measles or the whooping cough? It wouldn't be fair, you know, for us to take you into the family and have to nurse you through these complaints some time or other."

Worm Destroyer.

White's Cream Vermifuge not only kills worms, but removes the mucous and slime in which they build their nests; it brings, and quickly, a healthy condition of the body, where worms cannot exist. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The Gap In the Levan Rock.

On the way from Land's End, the extreme western point of England, to the Logan rock, just in from the cliff, after you have passed Tol-Pedn and immediately before the road drops to Porthgwarra, there is a little valley, a big grassy nook, with one cottage, a rectory and a church. This is the parish church of St. Levan, a fisherman saint, of whom there are many legends. His path is still seen by the track of greener grass that leads out to the rocks named after him, where he fished the traditional "chack-cheeid" chad. There is his stone, too, in the churchyard, one of those ominous stones which in Cornwall are thought to be the dials of time itself, chroniclers of the hour of the last judgment. The Levan stone is a rock of granite, split in two, with grass and ferns growing in the gap between the two halves. The end of the world will come, says the rhyme, when the gap is wide enough for a pack horse with panniers to pass through. "We do nothing to hasten it," the rector said to me reassuringly.—London Standard.

Trifles.

We are often reminded of what Mrs. Chillingly said when asked who managed her household. Her reply was, "My husband has agreed that I may decide upon all the small questions if I will let him decide the large ones." As small ones arose many times each day and large ones only at intervals of months, it ended in her "ruling the roost."

Malicious.

Mrs. McCall—I do wish I could get a good maid. Mrs. Vandine—You might interview mine. I think she'd be delighted to go to you. Mrs. McCall—But why don't you keep her? Mrs. Vandine—Oh, she won't stay! She says she wants a place where she won't have so many dresses and hats to take care of.—Answers.

If a man could have half his wishes he would double his trouble.—Franklin.
